- CENTRAL FLORIDA PLANNING COUNCIL - Wednesday, 9:30 a.m. - The Central Florida Regional Planning Council will meet. City of Winter Haven AdventHealth Fieldhouse & Conference Center, 210 Cypress Garden Blvd., Winter Haven.
- MEDICAID ELIGIBILITY HEARING HELD - Wednesday, 10 a.m. - U.S. District Judge Marcia Morales Howard will hold a hearing in a potential class-action lawsuit alleging Florida has not provided adequate information before dropping people from the Medicaid program. The hearing will include arguments on a request for a preliminary injunction that would require Medicaid officials to reinstate coverage to people dropped from the program in recent months and to end additional terminations until adequate information is provided. Also, the judge will hear arguments about certifying the case as a class action. Attorneys for Medicaid beneficiaries filed the lawsuit in August amid a process that the state started this spring to determine whether more than 5 million people enrolled in Medicaid remained eligible for benefits. The process was a result of the end of a federal COVID-19 public-health emergency. The state's lawyers have disputed that the Medicaid program violated beneficiaries' rights and said the judge should deny the plaintiffs' requests for an injunction and certification as a class action.
